Dear Families,

Ladybirds and Woodland Class were fortunate enough to see a herd of deer on their walk this morning, there was much excitement when they saw the stag! It was lovely to see the snowdrops in the churchyard and there were definitely more signs that Spring is on its way!

Osprey Class are reading 'The Boy at the Back of the Class', the main character in the story enjoys eating pomegranates, this afternoon, all the children in Osprey Class had the opportunity to look at, smell and taste pomegranate!

Family Time

The children were tasked with turning themselves into mini Davids today! These will be displayed in the classroom and link the story of David and Goliath... we will explain more next week!

In other news:

Bag to School

As an extra fundraiser, we have organised a Bag to School collection for Wednesday 9th March, more information has been attached to the newsletter email. Items will need to be put in plastic bags, the more we weigh in, the more they will pay!

Road works in Ibstone

We have had confirmation today that the planned roadworks in Ibstone will now take place during the Easter holidays, works will start on Monday 11th April

Enjoy your weekend!
