Dear Families,

What a week! We hope that all the children who have been off school poorly this week are beginning to feel better and we hope to see you for the end of term next week! The children who have been well enough to be in school enjoyed some winter sports on Monday! Kestrel and Osprey Class found a new way down to the Ark, as did the staff!

We finally managed to welcome Danny into school today to take photos of the Nativities in action (with some KS2 children taking on extra roles!). Everyone in school should have brought their photo proofs home on Friday. The galleries have now been uploaded. Earlybird discount will be available until Christmas Day not 15th as per the proof sheets. Obviously prints will not be with you before Christmas due to postal strikes but digital orders will be sent out straight away.
